

TUESDAY MORNING

Art Quotes – Reading, Interpreting, & Writing

Eric Gibbons, Dongkui Lin

8:00 – 8:50 am Atlantic 3

Projects to enhance reading, interpreting, discussion, writing, and cross-curricular content through the use of historic quotes about art or by artists. (STEAM)

All Audiences

Bullying Interventions and Preventions in Education through the Visual Arts

Gene Neglia and Vanessa Paccione

8:00 – 8:50 am Atlantic 4

As a response to increasing violence in schools as a result of bullying, this presentation will examine the use of the visual arts as an alternative to current bullying interventions.

Middle

Awesome: Preparing art teachers with real people with disabilities not just labels

3:00-3:50 pm Seabright North

The presenters who spent 30 years teaching Art, Language and Philosophy at the RI School for the Deaf will talk about preparing young art teachers for working with populations with disabilities.

All Audiences

If Picasso went to the Zoo

Eric Gibbons, Dongkui Lin

9:00 – 9:50 am Atlantic 3

A collaborative project by 40+ art teachers on art history, biology, alliteration, and literature—tons of lessons for K-12th grade!

All Audiences

National Honor Society

Lisa Hirkaler

9:00 – 9:50 am Atlantic 4

NAHS rules, goals, and mission will be discussed. Vernon Twp. High School has been a member and has hosted invitational art shows for years—we will share our experiences.

All Audiences

Google Resources for the Art Room

Alison Wallace

9:00 – 9:50 am Atlantic 5

Several Google/Chrome Add-Ons and extensions will be discussed, with the objective of helping you learn to create engaging and collaborative lessons and resources to be used in the art room.

All Audiences

Wearable Art

Debbie Cella

9:00 – 9:50 am Monmouth 5

When designing wearable art there are considerations to be addressed for functionality. Integration of STEM with Art enriches connections. Engagement with kinesthetic learning, concept of movement and functionality with art and culture will be discussed.

Middle-Secondary

Art that Empowers: for Students with Emotional and Behavior Needs

Jennifer Santa Maria

11:00 – 11:50 am Atlantic 3

An art teacher has a vital role in every young person's life, but for the student with special needs, the art teacher may be one of the most important figures in their schooling experience. This presentation will get your ideas flowing so you can better reach your most difficult students. All kinds of learners can benefit from the many examples of adapted lessons. These fail-proof lessons teach more than art concepts by teaching students pro-social skills, how to be their own advocate, how to use technology to bolster self-esteem and to promote independence. Unique and original 3D, 2D, media arts, and even edible art lesson examples are provided.

All Audiences

Clay Chronicles

Karen Kiick

11:00 – 11:50 am Atlantic 4

This presentation shares the evolution of a ceramics program. Learn how to manage mess, encourage risk-taking and how to challenge students to push past just making things that already exist.

Secondary

Unusual Teaching Environments

Nancy Schaefer

11:00 – 11:50 am Atlantic 5

As educators in non-traditional school settings, one a school district solely for students with special needs and the other a prison, we will explain the practicalities of our daily experiences.

All Audiences

Visual What? – To Save a Life

Joanne Serraino

11:00 – 11:50 am Monmouth 5

You, the Art Educator, have the very special conceptual/technical insight to bring into meaningful awareness the tie that binds the inside to the outside of each individual you touch.

This and courage are the essentials in saving each emotional and physical life. We will share the everyday through the interpersonal--the mundane, to the unique. Participants should bring their iPhones (with Wikipedia App) and a pencil and magic marker.

All Audiences

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Morphing Murals – Videos Made From Ever-Changing Art

Jesse Wright, Donna Aceino

12:00 – 12:50 pm Atlantic 3

See collaborative paintings come to life through time-lapse video! Participants will be introduced to various techniques for ongoing creativity involving video documentation, free expression, student excitement a flip camera and leftover supplies.

All Audiences

Under the Sea: Our Middle School Art Installation Makes a Splash

Ellen Hargrove

12:00 -12:50 pm Atlantic 4

This presentation shares the planning, organization, and lessons behind our ocean themed installation, as well as the student productivity and artwork, installation process, and finished product. Cross-curricular and collaborative!

All Audiences

Digital Rubrics

Rosie Singalewitch

12:00 – 12:50 pm Monmouth 5

Learn to use the For All Rubrics app to grade faster and more accurately, as well as forward those grades to students and their parents electronically. Bring your laptop/tablet, a sample rubric and a class roster.

All Audiences