

AENJ & Kean University are excited to announce the return of the AENJ Members' Art Exhibit! This year's exhibit will be held once again at the James Howe Gallery in the Vaughn Eames Hall of Kean University in Union, NJ. The exhibit will be on display from June 9th through July 10th and a closing reception will be held for all artists and their friends and families on July 10th.

Interested in participating? Check out the guidelines for the exhibit:

- One artwork per member. You must be a current AENJ member!
- No wet paintings! All artwork must be ready to hang at the time of submission.
- Paintings must have 2 eye hooks and wire running between stretcher bars on the back. Drawings and prints must be framed with wire across the back of the work. No exceptions! Any installation pieces, contact Carrie Davey for instructions.
- Paintings cannot have black glossy tape along the sides.
- Extremely oversize work (anything larger than 5 feet) cannot be accepted.
- Work should have been completed within the last five years.
- Kean University has pedestals and display cases for three dimensional work; the size limit for the pedestals is 2' x 2' x 3' or 25 lbs.; the display cases are for ceramics and smaller three dimensional works.
- You must pick up your work at the closing reception on July 10th.
